

SOCIETY and PERSONAL ACTIVITIES of WOMEN

SOCIETY

The music department of the Progress club met Thursday afternoon at the club. The second and third acts of the American opera "Fairland" were presented. The story of the opera was read by Mrs. LaRue Smith, and one violin number was given by Mrs. William Moore, accompanied by Mrs. Russell Miller. Preceding the program an election of officers was held resulting in the appointment of Mrs. P. C. Traver, vice-chairman; Mrs. Frank Whitehill, vice-chairman; and Mrs. Robert Perkey, secretary-treasurer. The music department will present next Saturday afternoon before the general club a minstrel show, the proceeds of which will be given to the permanent home fund. The entertainment will be open to the general public. Preceding and following the program a pastry sale will be held in the club room under the auspices of the Circle and Philanthropy department of the club. Mrs. Theodore Keeler being in charge.

Mrs. Floyd Deahl, 814 Van Buren st., assisted by Mrs. L. M. Hammer, Schmidt, Mrs. Orio Deahl and Mrs. Elmer Daley, entertained the members of the Circle and Philanthropy department of the club, Mrs. Theodore Keeler being in charge. The afternoon was spent with the members of the Circle and Philanthropy department of the club, Mrs. Theodore Keeler being in charge. The afternoon was spent with the members of the Circle and Philanthropy department of the club, Mrs. Theodore Keeler being in charge.

The Helena Rebecca Sewing circle met Thursday afternoon at their hall. The afternoon was spent with needlework and a social hour was enjoyed during which light refreshments were served to 30 members by the hostesses who were Mrs. Herman Wagner, Mrs. Fred Waechter and Miss Anna Mennel. The circle will meet again in two weeks at the hall, the hostesses to be announced later.

The members of the Circle of Mercy were entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Julia Lane, 832 E. Bronson st. Members were present and a business session was held. The circle will be on the afternoon of April 6 at the home of Mrs. R. M. Munnich, 801 S. William st.

The Nonpareil club was entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lulu Ford, 527 Riverside dr. Thirteen members were present. Current events formed the program for the afternoon, after which a social hour was enjoyed during which light refreshments were served by the hostess. The club will meet on the afternoon of April 6 at the home of Mrs. William Hobbick, 222 E. Navarro st.

Mrs. Clarence Thresh, 606 Blaine av., was hostess Thursday afternoon to the members of the Thursday club. After the business session, three common luxuries were discussed, Mrs. L. H. Orvis presenting the subject of "Jewels," Mrs. G. G. Spauld, the subject of "Perfume," and Mrs. Thresh the subject of "Furs." Following the program a social hour was enjoyed. In the afternoon of April 6 the club will hold a meeting at the home of Mrs. Squint, 922 N. Notre Dame av.

Sixteen members of the Mothers' club were pleasantly entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. C. Witter, 1014 S. Michigan st. The afternoon was spent socially and light refreshments were served. The club will meet again in two weeks, the place to be later announced.

Mrs. E. Sherman, Tontii av., was hostess to the members of the Kolah club Thursday afternoon. The time was spent socially and in several contests the favors were won by Mrs. J. Drain and Mrs. Carl Hinzler. Light refreshments were served to 10 guests. The club will be entertained on the afternoon of April 6 at the home of Mrs. Drain, 1315 Miami st.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Grace Evangelical church held an all day session Thursday at the home of Mrs. George Devine, 505 N. Allen st. Dinner was served at noon to 25 members and the afternoon was devoted to a business session. Officers were elected, those appointed being Mrs. Frank Inman, president; Mrs. David Beale, vice-president; Mrs. Ruby Beck, secretary; Mrs. Frank Shade, treasurer. On April 6 the society will hold an all day quilting session at the church, and on May 4 Mrs. M. Price, Portage av., will be hostess to the members.

Eighteen members attended the special all day meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Lowell Heights M. E. church, which was held Thursday in the church. The forenoon was devoted to making scrapbooks and covering postal cards for orphan children. At noon dinner was served and the afternoon was spent with a program which was as follows: Two vocal duets by Mrs. Josephine Rothbader and Mrs. H. T. Kiplinger, accompanied by Mrs. W. Willin; a reading by Mrs. Frank Wishman; a vocal number and benediction by Rev. Jordan. Also "Founders Day" was discussed by the members informally. The next regular meeting of the society will be held April 13 at the home of Mrs. G. Walker, Minor st.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Cohan, 510 Howard st., entertained the members of their whist club Thursday evening. The evening was spent at cards and at its close a buffet luncheon was served to 12 members. The club will meet again in two weeks, the place to be announced later.

The mothers of the Laurel school met Thursday afternoon informally at the school and after a program of French, Polish, Belgian, Swedish and Slavish songs sung by children of the different grades, and Hungarian dances given by two small girls, the parents adopted a constitution and organized a Parent-Teachers association of the school. Officers were elected following the adoption, the appointments being as follows: Mrs. P. H. Lucky, president; Mrs. Nina Doolittle, vice-president; Mrs. G. W. Steward, secretary and Miss Angela Hazerty, treasurer. The next meeting of the association will take place at 5 in the auditorium of the school.

Mrs. Harry Barnes will be the soloist at the spring Art Exhibit to be held in the South Bend Women's club Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Over 100 paintings representing the work of South Bend artists both oil and water color are being hung and show a surprising amount of talent. The exhibit is open to the general public.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jackson, 801 Diamond av., entertained the members of the Bo Jo club Wednesday evening. The favors at cards were won by Mr. and Mrs. Heckathorn and R. L. Culp. Luncheon was served following the game. In two weeks the club will be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Miller Shank, 1022 Foster st.

Miss Virginia Zellers entertained the members of the Kresge club Tuesday evening. Sewing and music furnished the diversions of the evening and a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess. The club will meet again in two weeks with Miss Mamie Dobieski, 215 N. Birdsell st.

The South Bend Philathetic society was entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Robert Gammack, 812 Forest av. Following the regular business the evening was spent socially. The next meeting will be held April 5 with Ned Bradford, 824 Park av.

Mrs. Emma Christ entertained the members of the Golden Rod club at 812½ E. 11th Wednesday afternoon. During the business session it was decided to have a card party next Tuesday afternoon at the hall and plans were also made for another card party to be given in the evening of March 29. During the social hour refreshments were served by the hostess to 20 guests. The next regular meeting will be held in two weeks with Mrs. E. Stewart, 830 Sixth st., River Park.

Founders Day was observed on Tuesday by the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of St. Paul's Memorial church in the social hall of the church. The thank offering demonstration was presented by the Kings Heralds under the direction of Mrs. H. C. Wettler. The short business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. G. L. Rullison and greetings from 187 were brought by Miss Lottie Peiffer, who appeared in the costume of that period. Mrs. Donald Allen responded for 1922. Mrs. E. A. Lucado spoke on "Dollars in Action" and music was furnished by Mrs. E. M. Brown. Refreshments were served to 50 guests. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. W. C. Yenna, 408 N. Cushing st., April 18.

The members of the E. J. L. Euchre club were entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Everett Hutchinson, 719 George

FROCKS for LITTLE SISTER

The Three-Tiered Skirt Returns Today

By ANNETTE BRADSHAW

The newest frocks and fabrics bring to life again the styles of 1830, for in the off-the-shoulder neckline, the ruffled skirt, the scalloped and nosegays of today we recognize direct duplicates of those other-day styles.

The three-tiered skirt of the young 1830 miss finds its counterpart today in the frock for big and little sister alike. Also little sister wears colors which have heretofore been considered much too old for one of her tender years. Brown, henna, bright green and strong purple are her favorites, and the three-tiered frock she chooses here is of purple crepe de chine. A black velvet ribbon and bright-colored nosegay at the waist complete its effect.

As crepe de chine and cotton voile are the two fabrics quoted most frequently for children's wear in Paris, another very popular medium will undoubtedly be cotton voile, and the style will be ruffled. The model at the right is of youthful ruffled treatment.

The craze for everything of peasant inspiration is widespread, and it serves as an excellent excuse to inject color into children's clothes. Bright cotton blends and embroidered frocks will appear on all dresses which have a background of white.

The favors were won by Mrs. Hutchinson, Mrs. Joseph Wicker and Mrs. Ralph Pinkerton. The next meeting will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Joseph Wicker, 829 E. Washington av.

Mrs. Paul Berry was elected chairman, Mrs. Harry Bartlett, vice chairman and Mrs. R. V. Maurer, secretary and treasurer, at the meeting of the literature and dramatic department held Wednesday afternoon at the South Bend Women's club. Mrs. William Edmondson gave a group of Riley readings, and an original play written by Mrs. Conrad Adams was given by Mrs. Adams, Mrs. W. K. Sherman, Mrs. Knowles Smith, Mrs. C. W. Stover, Mrs. S. J. Powers, Mrs. W. H. Mikosch, Mrs. G. W. Schmidt and Mrs. J. E. Caulley. O Henry's story "Hearts and Hands," which had been dramatized by Mrs. Paul Berry was presented by Mrs. Berry, Mrs. C. E. Francis, Mrs. H. Bartlett, Mrs. J. B. Renshaw and Mrs. John Moore.

The Loyal Americans No. 1003 held their regular meeting Wednesday evening at Beyer hall. Four applications were read and four candidates initiated. A chicken supper was served to 80 members and was followed by dancing. A dance to be given by the officers was announced for April 1. The next regular meeting will be held April 12.

Announcements

The Sophomore class of the South Bend High school will entertain with a dance on the evening of Mar. 31 in the school gymnasium. The program of dances will be played by the Big Five orchestra.

Section II of the Literature department of the Progress club will meet this afternoon at 3:30. Mrs. Charles Schadt will have charge of the music and Miss Sarah Witter will read "The Black Drop" by Margaret Deland. The annual election of officers will take place.

The Glad Game class of the Lowell Heights M. E. church will give a play in the church annex this evening at 7:45.

BIRTHS

Dr. and Mrs. Armin Fischer, Spokane, Wash., March 22, Mrs. Fischer was formerly Miss Mary Eastman of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Swank, 1815 S. Fellows st., March 22, a son.

Swank Dyes Clothing, Main 751, 72-73.

An ounce of mother wit is worth a pound of energy.

Ask your doctor this. He will tell you that properly fitted glasses will relieve headaches.

DR. J. BURKE

Over 20 years in South Bend

230 S. MICHIGAN ST.

The House of the Kryptok Glasses.

Prices Moderate.

Between climbing onto a pedestal

Advise a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Advising a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Revelations of A Wife

by ADELE GARRISON

THE REASON MADGE FELT SHE HAD FAILED.

Sully was the only word to apply to Ted Cosgrove after his success in sending Bess Dean away with Dicky, leaving him to take care of me on the fishing excursion.

He is not yet old enough to suffer sufficiently to mask his chagrin and disappointment with the courtesy of a man of the world would have felt compelled to employ. And there was a boy's grief and wrath in both tone and gesture as he picked up the fishing poles and muttered:

"Where d'ye want to fish?"

"Why, Ted? I don't know," I said, stressing the pronoun, and endeavoring to make my voice as sprightly as possible. I might have added with over-weening truth that I did not care, for whatever cost I might have had for the expedition had long since disappeared, and I was conscious only of a great weariness of body and spirit.

You know the good places," I began, and was interrupted by another call from Fred.

"Number five!" he yodeled. "Oh, boy! I'm the warm baby tonight. Ain't nobody going to teach this chile. Say, Ted, why don't you take Mrs. Graham around the bend to the big rock? Ought to be sloughs of 'em there."

Madge Takes It Easy.

"Yes, and we'd be well out of your way," Ted rejoined. "Don't worry. Nobody wants to share your trouph."

"Mr. Ain't jealousy an awful thing?" Fred's query apparently was addressed to the moon, the rim of which was just showing over the distant mountains.

Ted vouchsafed no answer to the gibe, but picking up a motor blanket and a heavy coat from the pile of wraps we had brought from the car and had deposited on the stones, he led the way around the bend in the short line to which Fred had referred.

I followed him, a bit conscience-in order to reach a man's ideal, and having to step off of it, every now and then, in order to get down to his level, the average wife feels almost as though she were committing polygamy.

If a man were as careful about selecting a wife as he is about selecting a bootlegger, and as cautious about signing his name to a marriage certificate as he is about signing it to a check, there would be fewer sentimental bankruptcies in the hands of the Reno receivers.

No matter what noble principles a man may stand for, his wife feels justified in secretly guarding him from any little pink and yellow thing that a less noble man might fall for.

Bachelors are the Bolsheviks of love; yet some of the finest husbands in the world have been made from bachelors, merely by a little denaturing—"extracting the kick."

Unless you are yearning for a martyr's crown, never ask a man if he loves you, when he is testing the new syphon, or trying to discover what makes the knock in the engine. (Copyright, 1922.)

National library of Paris is said to be the largest in the world.

For A Small Amount Down and 50c a week

You can purchase any article in our store up to and including $25 in value.

Take advantage of the most liberal and dignified credit ever offered in the world. Watches and jewelry of unassailable quality and strictly correct style.

15 years in business—with 15 stores in 15 cities, and hundreds of our first customers still banking on us absolutely for good diamonds and dependable timepieces—this store's ability to satisfy you in every respect.

Why not come in and see for yourself? Open an "O & E" Charge Account Today.

"Aristocrats of Credit Jewellers"

Olsen & Ebner

214 S. Michigan St.

15 yrs. in business, 15 stores, 15 cities

DR. J. BURKE

Over 20 Years in South Bend

230 S. MICHIGAN ST.

The Home of the Kryptok Glasses

Prices Moderate

Between climbing onto a pedestal

Advise a husband how to rule his wife or a wife how to manage her husband is deliberately juggling with T. N. T. But the world will always be full of intrepid "advisers" who keep the pieces.

Nothing helps a woman's morale in times of trouble, like a brand-new marvel, a freshly powdered nose, and an admiring glance from a good-looking stranger.

Every girl hitches her wagon to a star, in these days; but that never seems to prevent her from wanting a husband, if only as a parachute in case of disaster.

Tomorrow's HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble

THE OUTLOOK FOR THIS DAY IS NOT ENCOURAGING

according to the planetary testimonies. By mutual aspect, Saturn, the major malefic, bears rule, and this figure portends all manner of annoyance, setbacks and obstacles, with congested conditions predominant in all affairs and with the physical condition reacting to the same crystallizing and depressing force. Expense may be a matter for concern and losses are possible.

Similar unsatisfactory situations may manifest in other interests outside of business, although those in the employment of others may be fortunate. But they should care for the health.

Those whose birthday it is should safeguard their money, and take good care of their health. They should endeavor to keep down expenses. A child born on this day may be erratic and extravagant, vain and foolish, and often in trouble unless its early education be broad and sound, with special reference to thrift, industry and the faculty to overcome poverty.

Swank, Master Cleaners, Phone Main 791, 72-73.

Without posing definitely as the boy's guardian, something for which I had no authority, I could do nothing but acquiesce politely to his request. But I taunted myself bitterly with the failure of my muse. The lure of Bess Dean's laugh was drawing him back to her side, and for my pains I had only given Dicky justification—I drew my breath in sharply.